

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS
WESTERN DIVISION

PROCEDURES AND OTHER INFORMATION FOR COMPLETING THE FORM FOR CONSENT OR REFUSAL OF MAGISTRATE JUDGE JURISDICTION
February 13, 2012

I. AUTHORITY

The Western Division sitting in Springfield has entered a Standing Order dated February 13, 2012, amending the Standing Order of January 7, 2005, authorizing the assignment of civil cases to the Magistrate Judge. This Order may be found on the web page for the Springfield office on the court's website at <http://www.mad.uscourts.gov/springfield/springfield-home.htm>.

II. PROCESS

For counsel and non-prisoner pro se litigants:

As the party initiating the civil action, you are responsible for serving the Western Division's standing order of February 13, 2012, and the consent/refusal form on all opposing parties. You are also responsible for contacting these attorneys or parties to inquire as to their consent or refusal to proceed before the Magistrate Judge.

While consent to the assignment of the case to the Magistrate Judge is entirely voluntary, and no adverse substantive consequences of any kind will redound to an attorney or party refusing to consent, submission of the executed form, memorializing consent or refusal to consent to final assignment to the Magistrate Judge, is mandatory.

The document does not need to have a handwritten signature from each attorney or party.

If the consent is unanimous you may enter an electronic signature on the consent form for each attorney or party in this style: '/s/ John Smith' (see the Court's CM/ECF Administrative Procedures for further information on electronic signatures). You may use multiple sheets if additional space is needed. The consent form is also available on the Court's web page. An example of a completed form is attached to these procedures.

Should any party not consent, you should electronically file the form, after completing just the bottom part of the form.

NOTE: The Court is not to be made aware of which party or parties did not consent to the Magistrate Judge's jurisdiction.

Only one consent/refusal form should be filed for the case by counsel and non-prisoner pro se litigants.

The consent or refusal is to be filed electronically in the Court's CM/ECF system, using one of these selections, found under the 'Other Documents' menu: 'Consent to Jurisdiction by

US Magistrate Judge,’ or ‘Refusal of Consent to Proceed Before a US Magistrate Judge.’

Non-prisoner pro se litigants who do not have access to the Court’s electronic filing system are to file the completed consent or refusal with the Clerk’s Office on paper.

For incarcerated pro se litigants and counsel in those cases:

The packet of materials regarding Consent or Refusal to Magistrate Judge jurisdiction will be issued by the Clerk’s Office with the appropriate summons or service order. It will be the responsibility of the pro se litigant to serve this notice along with the Summons and Complaint or Notice of Removal.

The Clerk’s Office will include this notice and accompanying documents with any Service Order entered in 28 U.S.C. § 2241 or 28 U.S.C. § 2254 actions filed by pro se petitioners.

While consent to the assignment of the case to the Magistrate Judge is entirely voluntary, and no adverse substantive consequences of any kind will redound to an attorney or party refusing to consent, submission of the executed form, memorializing consent or refusal to consent to final assignment to the Magistrate Judge, is mandatory.

Prisoner pro se litigants and counsel for opposing parties do not need to confer, but shall file separate documents, on paper and clearly marked “DO NOT SCAN” directly with the Clerk’s Office indicating their consent or refusal to the Magistrate Judge’s jurisdiction. The Clerk’s Office will gather the information, and make the appropriate docket entry, based on the documents filed. The original documents relating to consent or refusal filed by any party in a litigation involving an incarcerated pro se litigant will not be attached to the electronic (CM/ECF) docket, but stored in the paper case file.

III. CONSENT AND FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

Should all parties consent to the Magistrate Judge’s jurisdiction, the case will continue before the Magistrate Judge as any other civil case, including bench or jury trial, and the entry of final judgment, with direct review by the First Circuit Court of Appeals if any appeal is filed. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

IV. ADDITIONAL PARTIES

Counsel or pro se parties filing a pleading that adds additional parties to the civil action are responsible for serving the General Order and the consent form with that pleading, and then filing the consent form, except for pro se prisoner litigants, who shall file the instructions above.
